1. Holiday Fair Report:

- It's in its 3rd year.
 - Held the 1st Saturday of December.
 - Largest single-day fundraiser school does
- There are 3 charges for PO (chose one, delegate 2)
- 1) clean up
 - 2) man the drink stations
 - 3) create a book donation tree for Ronald Mc Donald house:
 - create small ornament books to hang on tree
 - gather donations, add book plates, deliver donations, etc...

2. There are 3 branches of PO: Heads, Hearts, Hands.

Head has no official "head", nor does "hearts" (though Shannon O'Connor is stepping in temporarily). Hands is held by Corey Alicks.

Heads is interested in bringing monthly or weekly speakers in from the community, such as ASNC members:

Kathleen Wright who can offer talks such as:

- What Makes Waldorf Ed Different
- What are the Connections Between Waldorf Ed and Anthroposophy?
- Sample Class Lessons

Margheretta Bornhorst

- Movement and Wellness
- Anthroposophical Nursing
- Healing Rhythms

Dr. Mark Eisen

- Holistic Mom's talk re: Vaccination/flu shot questions

A suggestion was made to hold talks on Saturday/Sunday evenings as well, and to hold handwork groups over the weekends so working parents could attend. Also to have more fun events like bonfires, burger/ice cream socials...etc...

3. Big Question:

What do we really want the PO to be?

- conduct school wide survey (SurveyMonkey was suggested)
- learn from what other schools are doing

4. Announcement:

-All parents will receive a copy of Renewal Magazine in their youngest child's "cubby"
